Event Definition

Shot Details

The process of making each shot.

Shots On Target

Any shot attempt that; 1) Scores a goal. 2) Would have been a goal had it not been saved by the goalkeeper.

Shots

Any goal attempt including shots on target, shots off target, saved by the goalkeeper, blocked by a defender, and a goal.

Blocked Shots

A shot blocked by opponent other than the goalkeeper.

Shooting Accuracy

Shots on target divided by all shots.

Key Passes

Any final pass or cross leads to shots (excluding goals). If that final pass or cross leads to a goal, it is not a key pass but an assist.

Crosses

When a player successfully delivers the ball, usually from a wide position, into a dangerous area (the penalty area) in order to provide a goal-scoring opportunity for a teammate. A cross is considered as successful when the receiving player touches the ball.

Take-Ons

When a player attempts to take the ball past an opposing player by dribbling whilst maintaining control of the ball. Consider it a success is able to keep the ball after getting past the player.

Interventions

A defender successfully prevents an opponent's attack without gaining possession.

Control Under Pressure

When a player is able to regain possession of the ball whilst surrounded by opposing players.

Clearances

This is when the ball is cleared to safety by either a kick or header and eliminating any threat towards the team's own goal.

Tackles

When your player tried to stop an opposition player from either progressing further with the ball or from maintaining possession. This counts as both standing or sliding tackles. Consider a success when your player is able to stop the progress of the opposition player.

Aerial Duels

Two players challenge in the air to win the ball. Consider success if a player touches the ball regardless of ball possession afterward. It is not regarded as an aerial duel if only one player makes an attempt to head the ball.

Ground Duels

Two players challenge on the ground to win the neutral ball. Consider success if a player touches the ball regardless of ball possession afterwards.

Interceptions

When the opposing team tries to play the ball between their team but is intervened by one of your players and your team regains possession.

Recoveries

A player wins back the ball possession when it has gone to a neutral area or the ball has been moved directly to him/her. This event excludes the active attempts to get the ball possession, which is regarded as an interception.

Set Pieces

When the ball re-enters play from a dead ball situation or after a stoppage. This can come in the form of free-kicks, corners, goal kicks, and throw-ins.

Passes

When a player attempts to play the ball to his teammate. Consider a success if the teammate successful receives the ball.
